telecommunications offerings, or one of the mobile telecommunications offerings. These features are not found or suggested in the prior art.

The present invention is directed to presenting a graphical user interface (GUI), comprising a telecommunications offerings region located in a portion of the GUI, the telecommunications offerings region including, a voice telecommunications offerings sub-region for providing access to voice telecommunications offerings, an Internet telecommunications offerings sub-region for providing access to Internet telecommunications offerings, a mobile telecommunications offerings sub-region for providing access to mobile telecommunications offerings, and an order region for supporting ordering of one of the voice telecommunications offerings, one of the Internet telecommunications offerings, or one of the mobile telecommunications offerings. Each independent claim is identified “a mobile telecommunications offerings sub-region for providing access to mobile telecommunications offerings, and an order region for supporting ordering of one of the voice telecommunications offerings, one of the Internet telecommunications offerings, or one of the mobile telecommunications offerings.” The closest prior art Elliot discloses a conventional mobile telephone communications and in particular to interfacing between a wireless subscriber and the Internet; either singularly or in combination fail to anticipate or render the above underline limitations obvious.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”
